

Sky Arts Ignition: Futures Fund - round two is open for applications. The fund, an association between Sky Arts and IdeasTap, is offering five young artists a grant of £30,000 each, to enable them to fund their work for a year. In addition to the cash support, successful applicants will get a mentor from Sky. The fund is open to individual artists working in the following fields: visual art; theatre; performance art; film; music; dance or literature.

To be eligible to apply you must be an IdeasTap member (it's free to join) and aged between 18 - 30 by 24 February 2012. You must be based in the UK or Ireland.

You can find out more information about the fund here.

Deadline: 5:00 pm, 24 February (but you are advised to not leave it until the last day to apply)
