

If you enjoy demonstrations, want to develop skills or just have a go at painting then join our society or come along as a visitor to the demonstrations. Meetings are in the Unity Centre, St. Leonard's Road, Rotherham, on Fridays 7 to 9 p.m. (see below for dates).

Spring Programme 2012

The following sessions are based on the theme chosen by members of seascapes and rock

Feb 3: Demonstration - abstract using acrylics by Lena Papapanagiotou

Feb 17: Workshop and sharing ideas - bring along any paintings, reference material, tips, suggestions, inspirations etc. and for the first half-hour we can share ideas and materials*

March 2: Workshop following the theme*

March 16: Demonstration - a harbour scene using pastels by Norman Pepper

March 30: Workshop following the theme*

April 13: Demonstration – seascape watercolour by Paul Talbot-Greaves

April 27: Workshop following the theme*

May 11: Bring your work to discuss over coffee with visitors welcome to view work.

* Please note that at the workshops you are free to follow your own interests rather than the set theme

Costs:

Yearly membership £25 for access to all demonstrations and workshops from September to April, the opportunity to enter work in organised exhibitions, invitations to summer meetings, visits and social activities throughout the year.

Non-members £5 per visit for demonstrations, £2 for workshop sessions, full-time students £2 for any session or £10 for year.
